BRAINSTORMS With Ferrin Cox

One morning last week we spilled a cup of hot coffee in our lap. And the word hot, as used here, means very hot, fresh out of a very good Mr. Coffee! Actually, when trying to reconstruct what happened, we are a bit vague because it happened awfully fast. First, we bumped the edge of the table just putting the cup down. Then there was over adjustment to correct the first error and that put a gallon (it seemed) of coffee in our lap. As that hot stuff registered in the ol' mind, the hands swung out, the cup and what coffee that was left in it went to the floor and we jumped up gritting teeth and willing to scream with pain if it would have done any good. The pain was gone in a few seconds, but it entailed a complete change of clothes. Of course our coffee drinking "friends" laughed. which automatically added all their names to our pending lawsuit. The suit will be filled as soon as the copies of the court papers used by the lady out West in successfully suing the fast food restaurant which sold the coffee that spilled into her lap arrive in our hands!

Thinking back on the clumsy and embarrassing incident brings back memories of a dressing down received from a former neighbor one morning on the way to work. This neighbor was a medical doctor with extensive time in the emergency room and when he saw us heading to the car with a mug of fresh coffee, he exploded! While drinking coffee and driving seems to be a good way to efficiently use time, the good doctor told of the many times he had treated patients in the emergency room after they had been in an automobile accident following the spilling of hot coffee in their lap. Friday's experience explains all that. Even though there was no reason to drop the cup and spill the balance of the coffee. our reflexes didn't work that way. Apparently the only thoughts at the instant was the hot, burning feeling as the coffee soaked into the pants following patients admitted during Ward, Markeen Whitfield, W. B. The court battles to select a new president of this country is over. Vice President Gore conceded to Texas Governor George W. Bush and it is Check with your over. Of course there are those out there who would rather argue than settle the issue, but that was going happen either way. Our vote was cast for George W. Bush, but more times than not, our vote goes to the losing men agency on the candidate, yet the successful candidate is our president, governor, dog catcher or whatever, once the votes are counted. This country is proud of the freedom of speech rights enjoyed by Americans, but maybe there should be some qualifying standards accompanying those rights. People who put themselves in leadership positions need to lead and not tear down think of all the time wasted by being critical, when promoting the positive aspects of the same person or issue (or fixing the problem) would be much better for the world and for humanity. Anyone with an agenda to do all he or she can to destroy this incoming presidency is actually saying they are willing to destroy the country unless their personal ideals and goals are adopted by all of us. History Field Trip

On Thursday, November 30, Coach English and Mr. Carlile's U.S. listory classes took a trip to Montgomery. There they learned about the Civil Rights Movement in Montgomery during the 1960s. They saw the Band concert and did a wonderful Pictured above are: Jessica Danford, Katie Dyess and Katie Drig-Dexter Avenue Baptist Church, the place where Rosa Parks worked, the Little White House of the Confederacy, and the Capital. When asked what she thought about the trip, Katie Grimes replied, "It was informative, there is more history in a city than you think. We learned about the suffering people had to endure during the Civil Rights Movement." Ashley Harrelson stated, "It was fun, we learned about all the hate groups that have formed throughout the country." It was a fun-filled day of history. The classes hope to go back soon.

Elba Elementary Parent's Day

by Carmenda Coleman

Monday, December 4, began parent's day at Elba Elementary School. Parents were asked to come and visit and eat lunch with their children. On Monday, the Kindergarten's parents ate with their children. Thursday was the day for the 5th and 6th grade's parents to eat with them. Wednesday was for the 1st and 4th grade's parents. The final day for students and parents to have lunch together was Thursday when the 2nd and 3rd grade parents came to eat with their kids. As a whole, parent's day was a great success. A special thanks goes out to all the parents for participating.

CHRISTMAS BAH HUMBUG

Christmas has come round again, another year!
Most folks find it a gift giving time, I fear.
That spirit is one that I don't have anymore. Can't believe in giving of gifts as I did before.

Oh, I think it's nice gift giving for little kids! We always celebrated for our family; we really did. Now, I am older, and think it is a time for wee ones. Watching them open presents is really fun.

So, Bah Humbug! Christmas is not for likes of me. Our kide are all grown and we are alone, you see. For old folks alone, Christmas is just another day. Oh, we will recall Jesus birth and what the Angels

For He was born in a manger a long, long time ago.
The Angels sang in the heavens and told us so!
Shepherd's came and left their flocks that night; Come to see The Babe; what a wonderful sight!

Let us remember and make Christmas a Holy Day! Let us praise God as we go our merry way! God sent His Son that He might save us from sin! Let us open our hearts that He may dwell within!

Love of Beauty

On a ride through the country, how many of you have / seen old toilets in a front yard filled with flowering plants, how about old bath tubs, black tires painted white all full of blooms? What about the plastic gallon milk cartons filled with colored water, lining a flower bed or egg cartons cut up to look like the yucca is blooming. 1've even seen Puff the magic dragon made out of tractor tires in someone's front yard. These are all attempts to urround ourselves with beauty. It lifts the soul.

There is one time of year no matter how junky the yard s, or how much the house needs painting or how floppy the fence is, it becomes a wonderland. This is Christmas time. The Christmas lights are every where, hanging from brown leafless trees, lining a dilapidated roof, wrapped around a sagging porch, the one time of year that everyone lives in a castle. How good our spirits feel.

Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy....(Psalms 16:11)

memore

By Patti Brooks believe we are all born with a love of beauty and we want beauty all around us. I don't require a big house, but even if its a small house I want it to be pretty. If you look around you, there are all sort of ways people try to / beautify their surroundings.

THE PRESSBOX

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

The Mularz Family will join in the celebration of Christmas this week, Association has released its first Home, 5-Collinsville, 6-Huband even though we will spend Christmas in our fifth home since the two high school basketball poll of the bertville, 7-Brantley, 8-Mellow floods that hit Elba in the 90's, the family will be together, and that means season, and included in the initial Valley, 9-Alabama School for Deaf, that it is home no matter where we might be. From the Mularz Family to poll are a number of area teams, 10-Belgreen, Merry Christmas!

TAKING A FEW FREE SHOTS

The Elba Tigers took a whipping from their 6A neighbors from girls Faterprise last week, and while the 20-point loss was disappointing, I cuess the Wildcats and their fans were due something to cheer about since CLASS 6A the Tigers defeated Enterprise three times a year ago. The Tigers' John 1-Auburn, 2-Woodlawn, 3-Jeff 1-Buckhorn, 2-Athens, 3-B.C. Mitchell continued to be the surprise of the young season as he scored 24 Davis, 4-Grissom, 5-John Carroll Rain, 4-Eufaula, 5-Fairfield, 6points in the loss, while the Tigers' failure to play defense behind the Catholic, 6-LeFlore, 7-Sidney Hartselle, 7-B.T. Washington, 8three-point are once again helped their opponents enjoy much success. Lanier, 8-Parker, 9-Baldwin Coun- Walker, 9-Fort Payne, 10-Erwin. Elba has the size inside to battle with just about anybody it plays on both ty. 10-Northview. fense and defense; however, until the Tigers start defending the threenoint line, they could get beat by teams with good outside shooters. I am 1-Huntsville Lee, 2-B.C. Rain, 3- Wright, 3-Andalusia, 4-Sumter are the Tigers still have a lot of work to do on everything, and will get Anniston, 4-Gadsden, 5-Hartselle, County, 5-East Lawrence, 6-Coosa effer as the season rolls along. Hey, a 3-2 start ain't all that bad. 6-Ramsay, 7-Oak Mountain, 8- Central, 7-Deshler, 8-Geneva, 9-The Elba Lady Tigers posted a big win over Enterprise last week Athens, 9-Curry, 10-Briarwood. and have now claimed wins over New Brockton and Enterprise in their CLASS 4A last two games. The Lady Tigers lost only one senior last season and have 1-Coosa Central, 2-Sumter 1-Sylvania, 2-Lauderdale Counonly one senior this season, which makes it easy to see that the Lady Tiger County, 3-Headland, 4-Winfield, 5- ty. 3-Hanceville, 4-Ardmore, 5basketball program is headed in the right direction, probably a few years Alexandria, 6-Clarke County, 7- Springville, 6-Francis Marion, 7 shead of schedule. If you head out to an Elba basketball game, get there UMS-Wright, 8-Greensboro, 9-Livearly and watch the Lady Tigers play, they are worth the extra hour in the ingston, 10-Dora.

The high school basketball season rolled along last week and it was 1-Ardmore, 2-DAR, 3-Catholic, 1-Red Bay, 2-Geraldine, 3-Cold aist another average week for teams in the area. New Brockton was ousted 4-Calhoun, 5-Washington County. Springs, 4-R.C. Hatch, 5-Gaston, 6in the opening round of the Andalusia Christmas Tournament by 5A Car- 6-North Sand Mountain, 7-Glen- Fyffe, 7-Cleveland, 8-Pisgah, 9roll and continued to struggle to find wins, while 7th ranked Brantley was coe, 8-Phil Campbell, 9-Francis Southern Choctaw, 10-Susan tunned in the semifinals of the SEAC Tournament by Luverne, and Zion Marion, 10-West Morgan. hapel got thumped hard on the road by G.W. Long. This will be a good CLASS 2A ison for the fans to get excited as they support their favorite teams, but 1-Saint Jude, 2-Mars Hill Bible, might also be a season in which the losses outweigh the wins.

The battle over Alex Rodriguez was won last week by the Texas Section, 6-Vincent, 7-Cleveland, 8- den, 6-Mellow Valley, 7-Saint Rangers, who signed the 25-year-old All-Star to a 10-year, $252 million Donoho, 9-Houston Academy, 10- Bernard, 8-Loachapoka, 9-Pleasant ontract, easily the biggest ever in the sport. The total contract is $2 mil- Barbour County. con more than the Rangers sold for only three years ago, and doubled the CLASS 1A revious record for a sports contract. The contract calls for a $10 million 1-Courtland, 2-Decatur Heritage agning bonus paid over five years and salaries of $21 million in each of he first four years, $25 million a year in 2005 and 2006, and $27 million n each of the final four seasons. A total of $36 million is deferred at 3 perent interest, to be paid from 2011-2020. The Rangers also signed Andres Salarraga for $6.25 million, Ken Caminiti for $3.25 million and Mark Petkovsek for $4.9 million. I wonder what tickets will sell for next year

 The Dothan Eagle named its annual "Super 12" high school football teams last week, and while the area didn't exactly dominate the all-star squad, it was well represented on the coaching staff. Zion Chapel's Randy arant was named the 1A-3A Coach of the Year, and was a deserving choice after guiding the Rebels back from the brink of extinction and into the playoffs in one short year. Elba grad Leavy Boutwell was named the oach of the Year for the second straight year in the 4A-6A ranks, and the former Elba Tiger is without a doubt one of the top coaches in the state. regardless of school classification. While I don't always agree with all-star selections, this two men do get my blessing.

 In closing....I would like to thank everyone that helped make the first annual Operation Santa Claus sponsored by the Elba Recreation Department such a huge success, The program reached over 200 children in the Elba area, and helped make heroes out of some parents that weren't as fortunate as others, and helped put smiles on the faces of many, many youngsters. Thanks, again, and Merry Christmas!
